Snoqualmie Valley Health Foundation Announces 2025 Golf Invitational

SNOQUALMIE, WA – Snoqualmie Valley Health Foundation is proud to announce the 2025 Golf Invitational, a highly anticipated fundraising event dedicated to advancing healthcare in the Snoqualmie Valley. The tournament will take place Monday, September 22, 2025, at the renowned Club at Snoqualmie Ridge, host to the PGA Champions Tour and Washington’s only Jack Nicklaus Signature Course.

The Golf Invitational is more than a day on the green, it's an opportunity to come together as a community and invest in the health and well-being of our region. Proceeds from the event will support vital equipment, patient services, and innovative care initiatives through Snoqualmie Valley Health.

“It’s inspiring to see such strong support for local healthcare,” said Renée K. Jensen, CEO of Snoqualmie Valley Health. “We can’t wait to welcome golfers and sponsors to this beautiful course for a powerful day of purpose and play.”

While the event is officially sold out, community members still have the chance to get involved by joining the waitlist or supporting the cause through sponsorship opportunities and donations.

“This event is one of the most meaningful ways we connect with our community,” said Steve Wright, MPA, Executive Director of the Foundation. “We’re excited to bring it back this fall and incredibly grateful to everyone who helped us sell out early.”

Event Highlights Include:

- A full round of golf at one of Washington's top-ranked courses
- Premium amenities, prizes, and special experiences throughout the day
- Opportunities to connect with local leaders, healthcare professionals, and fellow community supporters
- Direct impact on life-saving programs and services in the Snoqualmie Valley
